

Registration

The registration system may give you a date of payment that is not correct. Check it: payment should be carried out at the latest 14 days after the beginning of the course or 14 days after registration in case the course had already started.

Notice that registration is compulsory and legally binding.

You may cancel your participation 5 banking days before the course begins. If you cancel later than this, the fees already paid will not be returned and you will be charged what is unpaid.

If there are several family members enrolling or a person's economy is problematic it is possible to make several payments: Contact the office.

You cannot pay at our premises.
